Write your own Mozart Cadenza!

During the Baroque and Classical periods, it was quite common for performers to create their own cadenzas. Playing one's own cadenza provides the performer a unique way in which to express their artistry. However, teachers and students are often perplexed as to how to begin the process. In this workshop, Dr. Terry B. Ewell will lead participants in exercises to develop cadenzas for Mozart's flute concertos. Please bring your flute and be prepared to perform your creations.
